As soft caresses scanoned by A lovely woman's kiss. I've gloated o'er the festive board, I've listened at the opera

And drank rich draughts of wine-To melody divine; But oh, I never, never met, Such sweet excess of hliss, As thrills the soul when lips receive A lovely woman's kiss.

A LOVELY WOMAN'S KISS.

BY AN ENTHUSIABLIC TOURS MAN.

Produced in every clime.

And supped on oysters prime,

I've feasted on rich turtle sonp,

Withia a world like this,

I've uniqueted on luxuries,

But nothing so delicious is

In glitterng halls of splendor rare I've passed the midnight hours-In gardens beautiful and fair I've wandered 'mid the flowers;

But there's a dearer joy than these-A joy I would not miss-A heavenly rapture which is found In lovely women's kiss.

In my last hours when death draws near In darkness and gloom, May woman's smile my pathway cheer And light me to the tomb: And when my soul shall take its fligh To other world's than this, May it be wafted to the skies

By lovely woman's kiss.
